

Rivelin Valley Heritage Open Day

Sunday 19th September 2021: 11:00–16:00

Rivelin Valley Park

Beside Rivelin Park Café and Rivelin Park Water Play
Rivelin Valley Road, Sheffield, South Yorkshire, S6 5GL

Celebrating 30 years of the Rivelin Valley Conservation Group – the Lord Mayor will unveil a specially-commissioned stone bench at c.1pm.

Meet the volunteers and visit our nature corner:

Discover the wildlife, see some mini-beasts and do a nature quiz. Find out how you can get involved in helping to conserve the valley.

Discover the history and heritage including tours to the world-famous Mousehole Forge. Bring your memories of Rivelin!

Art in the park: see artwork by and find out about the 1920s Rivelin Valley Artists' colony and 19th century artist William Lowe.

Poetry 'open mic' with Fay Musselwhite: poems on the themes of nature and foraging during a walk by the river.
